SIRIRBY W. C. HORTON, of Rowan County, rode into Morehead a few days ago, delivered up his arms and signed the compact of peace. As all the leaders of both factions have approved the agreement the trouble may be considered as ended.

POSTMASTER GENERAL VILAS has issued an order dispensing with several Post-office Inspectors after April 30th. Among them are: Fred De Tavenner, Tennessee; J. J. Hanna, Ohio; W. W. Patterson, Kentucky; T. R. McTeesson, Indiana; T. S. Debill, Indiana.

The project of building the Columbus and Maysville Railway is still a subject of interest in the counties along the line. Several routes are proposed and confidence is expressed that the enterprise can be successfully carried through if the proper effort is made.

THE news comes of great destitution in Eastern Kentucky, especially in the counties of Perry, Leslie, Bell and Knott. The crops have all been consumed and supplies can only be obtained at very distant points, and as the people are without the means to buy there is much suffering among them.

MR. W. W. BALD, the present incumbent of the office of County Clerk, is formally announced as a candidate for reelection. In soliciting the support of his friends, he points to the manner in which his duties have been discharged in the past. The card of announcement appears in another column.

MR. MURRAY KELLER, an applicant for Collector of the Port at Louisville, is discouraged. After an interview with the President he is reported as saying that it is not likely any more appointments will be made for Kentucky until the President is fully acquainted with the situation in the State.

It will gratify fair-minded men throughout the country to learn that the President will soon move against the Mahone Federal officeholders in Virginia. The Customs and Revenue officials and Postmasters of that stripe were to the last man put in office for partisan purposes, and to the last man they will have to go.

MR. CLEVELAND stamped a colored editor who called upon him with a dusky delegation by pulling out a copy of the gentleman's paper dated November 15, 1884, containing an article roundly abusing the then President-elect and denouncing his election as secured through theft, murder, assassination, ballot box stuffing and such other like methods.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Gen. Komaroff's Explanation of His Attack on the Afghans.

VIENNA, April 14.—The Russian embassy here has received Gen. Komaroff's report of his recent fight with the Afghans on the Kuchuk. Gen. Komaroff, in his account, which was sent to the minister of war in St. Petersburg, states that many Mohammedans fought on the side of the Russians. Especially did the Turcomans do good service as allies of the Russians. All the tribes between the Kuchuk and Pandyah, and further south toward Herat, have voluntarily recognized the sovereignty of Russia. The majority of the killed were Mohammedan Turcomans. The wounded Russian officers are Col. Nilschitsch, struck by two bullets; Commandant of the Cosacks Kozakoff; the Officers Chabuloff and Kosminin. Gen. Komaroff further says that he sent Cosacks to capture some English officers, who, however, saved themselves by riding quickly away among the crowd of mounted Afghans. The report that Germany will intervene between England and Russia is corroborated.

Komaroff's Explanation.

LONDON, April 14.—Late St. Petersburg dispatches received at the foreign office contain additional explanations and excuses for Komaroff's attack upon the Afghans. Komaroff now states that he was in possession of positive information of a night attack upon his troops, contemplated by the Afghans, and in order to forestall the consequences of a surprise, he was forced to dislodge the Afghans from the threatening position which they held. This latest theory as to the course pursued by the Russian commander has not had the effect of mending matters. Each new preparation has apparently only effected a disquieting, both to the government officials and the people, and a speedy termination of diplomatic intercourse followed by a declaration of war, seems nearer than ever.

Selling Military Plans.

VIENNA, April 14.—An inquiry into the charges against Baron Fodor of selling plans of certain military works tends to show that his action was due to indiscretion rather than to criminal intent. It has been discovered that a plot existed to secure and sell plans of Austrian and German Fortresses, and that the principal in the conspiracy was a Danish count, Baron Sarsaaf, who has been arrested at Berlin. Sarsaaf had agents among German and Austrian officers, and when they obtained any information of importance they forwarded it to him at Berlin. The information thus obtained Sarsaaf, it is said, sold to the governments of France and Italy. Several arrests of persons who were engaged in the plot have been made at Mayence, Schleswig and Berlin.

Let Loose the Dogs of War.

LONDON, April 14.—All the ministers at the council meeting when the Russian version of the causes which led to Gen. Komaroff's attack on the Afghans near Pandyah, was thoroughly discussed. The official explanation of the affair was laid before the ministers. It is generally considered reliable and so that it was adjudged to be unsatisfactory. The council decided that preparations for war should continue and that vigorous efforts for that end be put into operation at once.

From the Bloody Ground.

Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio,—keep the largest stock of medicines of any store in Lewis county, with the exception of a drug store at Vancuburg, our county seat, and am selling a great deal of your PERUNA and MANALIN. It is giving the best satisfaction of any medicine that I ever handled. In one case the constable for the precinct, has been very sick and low spirited for a long time. For several nights he has called all the doctors here, and we have some good ones, and they did him no good. After much persuasion I sold him two bottles of PERUNA and MANALIN. He took half of the medicine. I could see a great change in him, and now he is as sound a man apparently as there is in this vicinity, and he says he is entirely well. He is a number one man and is highly respected. He is satisfied that your medicine saved his life, after all the doctors and all medicines had failed. Being unacquainted with you, I refer you to John Shillito & Co., Altior, Pinkard & Co., and other business houses of Cincinnati.

R. L. GILLESPIE, P. M., Messrs. Adamson & Shipley, of Waynesburg, Pa., write: "Please send us some 'Life of Life' immediately. We are having a big run on your medicine, PERUNA. Instead of dying out, like most medicines, in course of time, it seems to be growing in favor. We sell lots of it. Please send the books soon."

Messrs. Withorn & Urban, of Allegheny City, Pa., write: "Having a large sale for your PERUNA and MANALIN, we have also many calls for your book, 'Life of Life.' Please send us a supply of them, German and English, and oblige."

S. Wolf & Son, Wilmet, O., write: "Gentlemen: We handle your goods, and they give good satisfaction."

"Gentlemen: I am handling your medicines, and having a good trade on them," C. S. Saunders, Martinsburg, W. Va., writes: "Gentlemen: Your PERUNA sells fast and gives good satisfaction here. We sell more PERUNA than any other preparation we handle."

W. Bauer, St. Mary's, Pa., writes: "My son is still improving in health. Your PERUNA is just the thing for him." H. L. Day & Co., New Vienna, Ohio, write: "S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio.—Gentlemen: Your PERUNA sells as well as any medicine with us. Quite a number have told us that PERUNA is the best thing they ever used."

WASHINGTON DOINGS.

ANOTHER SMALL BATCH OF FOREIGN APPOINTMENTS.

To Test the Responsibility for the Greely Disaster—An Expected Designation—Other News Gleanings of Interest from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The result of the Hagan court martial, whatever the verdict may be, threatens to reopen the whole question of the responsibility for the Greely disaster and bids fair to lead to an effort to improve by legislation our present system of court martial procedure. When congress meets Hagan and his friends will make a determined effort to have a joint congressional committee investigate the whole Arctic matter. The findings of the Hagan court were handed to Secretary Endicott about two weeks ago, and his final action upon them is looked for every day. Secretary Endicott has not been idle since the court adjourned, but seems totally indifferent as to the final issue. Should they be adverse the president will be appealed to for a new trial. Whether acquitted or not his counsel intend to publish the trial in book form, both in this country and London. The book will simply be a resume of the facts developed on the trial, which are already familiar to the public. The president has made the following appointments:

Consuls United States: Charles T. Russell, Connecticut, Liverpool, England. A. Haler Gross, Pennsylvania, Athens, Greece.

Wm. W. Lang, Texas, Hamburg, Germany.

Henry Vignaud, Louisiana, secretary legation United States, Paris.

Augustus Jay, New York, second secretary legation United States, Paris.

Assistant Secretary Fairchild has issued notification to importers, agents and others that a hearing will be granted them on Monday, April 27, on the subject of the regulations governing the customs of drawback allowed on jute bagging. The decision reached after this conference will be final and any further appeal will have to be made to the courts.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller it is understood, has decided upon a number of changes in the personnel of the force of internal revenue agents.

The commissioner of internal revenue has been notified of the death of Collector Slack, of Boston, and has authorized his deputy to act until an appointment is made, which may not be for a month.

The secretary of the navy has received a dispatch from Rear Admiral Joubert, at Colon, stating that trains are crossing the isthmus without interruption, and that the condition of affairs remains unchanged. It is believed at the navy department that the marines ordered to Panama will soon be recalled, their presence on the isthmus being apparently unnecessary.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The continued ill-health of First Assistant Postmaster General Malcolm Hay has given rise to a report that he will soon resign, when it is said that ex-Mayor Constantine, of Springfield, O. will be appointed to the position.

Gen. George D. Ruggles, of the adjutant general's office, on duty in Washington, has been ordered to duty at San Antonio, Tex.

Improvements in the manner of keeping pension agents' accounts have been adopted, which will enable the clerks not only to keep up the current work but to settle up by Nov. 15, all the work of the office, which is now nine months in arrears.

The British government has requested that the Alert, which was used in the Greely relief expedition, be sent to Halifax, where she will be received by the English authorities. The officers who commanded the Alert on the expedition will be detailed to accompany her.

A $5 contribution to the conscience fund has been received at the navy department from Boston. This is the first conscience money known to have been received at the navy department.

A committee of colored citizens of the district yesterday invited the president to review the procession of colored soldiers on emancipation day, and presented an address in the name of 70,000 citizens, asking from the administration recognition according to merit, equal rights and the advantages of education throughout the United States. The president promised the colored people a recognition of their rights and said he would review the procession, and if possible visit their entertainment in the evening.

Senator Sherman to be Honored. COLUMBUS, April 14.—Senator Sherman arrived at noon. He was met at the depot by Postmaster Myers, who is an old personal friend of the senator.

The legislature will give a reception and recess in honor of the senator during his stay, while several very important plans, bearing on the coming campaign, will likely be discussed with party leaders.

Colonel O'Brien says he will endeavor to have Pruden's bill passed so that the Cincinnati police commissioner can close up saloons at midnight and clean out the disagreeable all night houses. The bill has been buried in committee, but will be brought out to this week.

Robbed and Murdered.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 14.—Michael Coniskey, a Pole, employed as a hostler at Port Blanchard, was killed and robbed of his month's pay, which he had just received, by a fellow countryman named Andrew Mundes. The murderer placed the body on the railroad track with a view of hiding his crime, but the engineer saw it and stopping the train brought the body to this city. The clothes were almost stripped from the body, showing that a hard struggle had been made.

Probably a Gambling Debt.

PIEDMONT, April 14.—Edward Flinn, the widely known gambler of Hot Springs, Ark., has made his appearance in this city, accompanied by witnesses, to enter suit against the estate of the late Jas. Brown, the millionaire coal operator. Flinn claims to have loaned Brown a large sum of money about three years ago, part of which remains unpaid. He says he is able to substantiate his claims, which have caused no little comment among the friends of the deceased millionaire.

The Cattle Trade.

PORT WORTH, Tex., April 14.—One of the largest land and cattle trades ever made in America, has been closed here. The property of the Spanish land and cattle company, embracing 50,000 head of cattle and 50,000 acres of land was sold to an English syndicate. The consideration is not yet known.
